

Sunstein Kann Murphy & Timbers LLP takes pleasure in announcing that:

Meredith L. Ainbinder and Peter J. Karol

have become partners in the firm.

Ms. Ainbinder will continue to concentrate in litigation. Meredith has extensive experience handling all stages of IP and complex business disputes in state and federal courts throughout the U.S. Her work includes matters focusing on trademark and patent infringement, false advertising, unfair competition, trade secrets, copyright and Internet rights. She counsels clients on policies and agreements to maximize their business investments. She has represented clients in fields including consumer products, medical devices, telecommunications, software and publishing. Meredith is Secretary of the Women's Bar Association and co-chairs the Boston Bar Association's Federal Practice & Procedure Committee. Meredith has a B.A. from Brown University and a J.D., cum laude, from Boston College Law School.

Mr. Karol will continue to concentrate in intellectual property litigation, and trademark and copyright prosecution.

Peter focuses his practice on patent, trademark and copyright litigation, having brought and defended numerous suits across the country in fields including telephony, pharmaceutical products, sports equipment and computer software. Peter also manages global trademark portfolios, with an emphasis on higher education, wine and distilled spirits, clean energy and finance. He has extensive experience drafting complex IP agreements and licenses. Peter is also a member of the adjunct faculty of New England Law | Boston. Peter received a B.A., magna cum laude, from Amherst College and a J.D., cum laude, from Harvard Law School.

Sunstein Kann Murphy & Timbers LLP has an outstanding record of important wins for our technology and life sciences clients through litigation, patent prosecution, IP portfolio development and business transactions.
